

IAD TANZLE IN POLITICS.

Jolt of State Democrats Has Complicated the Local Situation.

SOME OF THE POSSIBILITIES.

Tammany Legislative Candidates Fear They Will Be Defeated.

CRY OF "MISTAKE" RAISED.

Some Wigwagites Now Think the Grace Men Should Have Been Given What They Asked For.

Here are some of the things that are likely to occur in New York City politics this fall as a result of the fiasco of Senator David B. Hill's harmony scheme at Syracuse yesterday:

1. A fusion of State Democrats and Independent County Organization with the Republicans on county and legislative tickets properly apportioned as to candidates.

2. A straight Republican ticket.

3. A straight Stead ticket.

4. A straight Good Government ticket.

5. A straight State Democracy ticket.

6. A partial fusion in districts all around.

7. A fusion of German-Americans with Tammany, made up of dissenters from the State Democracy.

8. Anything else an enterprising politician with enough wits to make a respectable bluff can think of.

The future of the State Democracy after its retirement from the State Convention at Syracuse yesterday is best represented in the minds of politicians to-day by a large interrogation point.

The State people themselves don't know how to answer it. Some of them admitted this morning when the fever had died out of their excited bodies, that their party made a mistake in not accepting the terms offered by Senator Hill's Committee on Credentials.

By accepting the tender of one-fifth of the representation of the city in the convention, the followers of Grace, Fairchild and others would have gained a point they have been struggling for.

They would not have been compelled to pledge themselves to support the Tammany local ticket, and as they will probably support the State ticket in any event, their admission to the convention on any basis would have been in the nature of a triumph.

Legislative Candidates Uneasy.

The victory now rests with Tammany.

although it is a hollow one, and he most anxious men in New York politics to-day are the Tammany candidates for the Legislature.

One Tammany Senator who came down from Syracuse on the same train with a reporter for "The Evening World" expressed the apprehension of a number of Tammany candidates when he said:

"If there is anything in the handwriting on the wall, there's going to be the finest sort of a fight this campaign, and I am not sure that I want a re-nomination."

"The State people and the Independent County crowd headed by the Stead can't do much injury to the county ticket, but they can knock the life out of some of our legislative candidates."

"In several districts the Stead balance of power or they can hold it by combining with the State crowd or the Republicans."

"I fear they will do so, and if they do, why it's all up with a lot of people who want to bear the Tammany medal on their breasts in the Legislature."

Says a Mistake Was Made.

"The turning down of Fairchild and his crowd was a mistake. We should have given them all they asked and tied their hands to prevent them from making mischief. Now they will go in with the Republicans to run a Kangaroo ticket against us, and the knockout of last year will be repeated."

The general impression among politicians who had subdued their choler sufficiently to express themselves this morning, was that the Platt machine will be forced into the Mayor's mixed ticket combine, and that the fight will be on the same lines as those of last year.

The feeling of Democrats concerning the chances of the State ticket, is most sanguine, much more so than that of the Republicans.

Gen. Horatio King, who was yesterday nominated for Secretary of State; Norton Chase, who will try to beat
Attorney-General Hancock; Senator Jacob A. Cantor, Col. "Bill" Brown and other Democrats who got in this morning from the Convention, predicted a sweeping victory for the State ticket.

No odds were offered on the chances of Tammany.

The local situation is so hopelessly mixed all around that almost any prediction is certain to be knocked into a cocked hat by the possible developments of each succeeding twenty-four hours.

County Convention Delegates.

Delegates to the Republican County Convention will be elected this evening in each of the thirty-five Assembly districts of the city. In all 318 will be chosen, and the Platt leaders say they will have 200 out of this number.

The main contest will take place in the Twenty-fifth District, where Job E. Hedges, the Mayor's private secretary, will endeavor to elect his delegate. The contest in the Twentieth District between Col. B. V. R. Cruger and James L. Stewart, and the one in the Twenty-third District between Gen.
Kerwin and Julius M. Mayer, will undoubtedly prove decidedly lively.

It is claimed by the opponents of "Boss" Platt that he will try to force a straight ticket, and that the Platt ticket will receive strength enough to elect the State ticket and permit him to again control the Legislature.

Fairchild's Statement to-Morrow.

When ex-Secretary Fairchild reached his office at 10.30 o'clock this morning he announced that his promised statement giving his party's views and probable action in the future would not be ready before to-morrow.

Mr. Fairchild is Chairman of the Executive Committee of the State Democracy and it is in such capacity that his statement will be given. For the present he simply reiterates what he said on arriving last night.

Col. Robert Grier Monroe, the first lieutenant of William H. Grace, when seen at his office, 1 Nassau street, said: "I consider the work of the machine at Syracuse imbecile and suicidal. It was simply a case where brute force and selfishness fought with little brains and intelligence there were in the machine, and brutality and selfishness won."

"So far as I am concerned I will support the State ticket, as will, I believe, every other member of the party. Locally, however, we are out for a fight all along the line."

Fall Bargains in Real Estate.

The fall season in real estate is on in all its fullness. Bargains are being sought. Advertisements upon the Half-Million Guarantee Page and find counters. Over 500,000 actual insertions in over 500,000 actual papers.

CITY OFFICIALS TIRED.

State Democracy Men Late in Getting to Work To-Day.

Members of the State Democracy who are also city officials were too tired this morning to put in an appearance on time at their respective offices, and as a result the wheels of office did not revolve with their accustomed regularity.

Corporation Counsel Scott did not attend the meeting of the Board of Estimate, and several matters, which the Mayor wanted to run a Kangaroo ticket against us, and the knockout of last year will be repeated."

The feeling of Democrats concerning
the chances of the State ticket, is most sanguine, much more so than that of the Republicans.

Gen. Horatio King, who was yesterday nominated for Secretary of State;
Norton Chase, who will try to beat
Attorney-General Hancock; Senator
Jacob A. Cantor, Col. "Bill" Brown and
other Democrats who got in this morning from the Convention, predicted a sweeping victory for the State ticket.

No odds were offered on the chances of Tammany.

The local situation is so hopelessly mixed all around that almost any prediction is certain to be knocked into a cocked hat by the possible developments
of each succeeding twenty-four hours.

County Convention Delegates.

Delegates to the Republican County
Convention will be elected this evening
in each of the thirty-five Assembly districts of the city. In all 318 will be chosen, and the Platt leaders say they will have 200 out of this number.

The main contest will take place in the Twenty-fifth District, where Job
E. Hedges, the Mayor's private secretary, will endeavor to elect his delegate. The contest in the Twentieth District between Col. B. V. R. Cruger
and James L. Stewart, and the one in the Twenty-third District between Gen.
Kerwin and Julius M. Mayer, will undoubtedly prove decidedly lively.

It is claimed by the opponents of
"Boss" Platt that he will try to force a straight ticket, and that the Platt ticket will receive strength enough to elect the State ticket and permit him
to again control the Legislature.

Fairchild's Statement to-Morrow.

When ex-Secretary Fairchild reached

was late in arriving, and the meeting had to wait half an hour in consequence.
Tax Commissioner Theodore Ruto was another of those who had "that tired feeling," and he did not get down in time to go on with a hearing of charges against Assessor Wendt.

EXCISE PLANK AN EVASION.

Ed Lauterbach Scores the Democratic Platform.

"Ours is an honest expression of opinion; theirs a subterfuge, an evasion, contradicting itself in every second line."

This is Mr. Edward Lauterbach's opinion of the relative merits of the two planks on the "wet" and "dry" question embraced in the platform adopted by the Republican and Democratic State Conventions respectively.

Mr. Lauterbach is Chairman of the County Committee—his Committee.
Also he may be expected to occupy the seat now accredited, with its $5,000 salary, to David Bennett Hill in the United States Senate. He wants to, anyway.

"You remember," he said, "when I walked down the aisle of the Saratoga Convention and commented upon the Miller amendment by saying 'No Republican can object to that.' Well, a Western newspaper said a day or two ago that 'No Democrat could, either.' That's the situation. Neither Republican nor Democrat can object to it."

"The Republican party is for a decent observance of the Sabbath in the interest of labor," that is a strong plank.
It is a winning one.

"The Democratic plank is an evasion.
It is cowardly. It will not fool anybody.
It says the Democratic party is in favor of one thing and later on it says it isn't. Now, that's rank cowardice, isn't it? They're afraid of it. I mean the Democrats."

"What are you going to do about a local ticket?" Will you spring a combination?" he was asked.

"I don't know," was his reply. "But I believe the majority of Republicans are in favor of a straight ticket. Why couldn't they be? They are almost assured of winning; the situation could not be much more promising for the Republicans than it is."

"We do go into a combination Republican sentiment will dominate it, and while we will not box all the office we'll want something to say about the men selected than we had last time."

"We will not take the chances this time we did then. This is our year.
We've got a clean bill of health in our pockets. But as to local, well, we'll see about that later on."

AND THE MAYOR CHUCKLED.

He Says There Can Be No Doubt of
a Union Ticket.

Mayor Strong enjoys the local political tangle quite as much as any man in this town. He chuckled an anti-grog chuckle when asked today what he thought of the situation.

"You can think almost anything you like without being wrong," he replied.
"Did you combine with Tammany to force a union ticket?"

Another chuckle.

"Doesn't it look as if there would have to be a union ticket?"

"You bet you. I don't see how they are going to get away from it."

Says the "Rounds" Hounds Him.

Patrolman Joseph Reisman of the Elizabeth street station, was before Commissioner Andrews at Headquarters today charged by Boardman John McLaughlin with having been out of the precinct and in a building at 131 Howard street at 8 P. M. Sept. 13. Reisman declared that the roundsman had been bounding him ever since he (Reisman) had brought a charge against the roundsman last summer. Commissioner Andrews rebuffed the case in order that the patrolman might produce witnesses to corroborate his charge.

1. A fusion of State Democrats and Independent County Organization with
the Republicans on county and legislative
tickets properly apportioned as to candidates.

2. A straight Republican ticket.

3. A straight Stead ticket.

4. A straight Good Government ticket.

5. A straight State Democracy ticket.

6. A partial fusion in districts all around.

7. A fusion of German-Americans with Tammany, made up of dissenters from
the State Democracy.

8. Anything else an enterprising politician with enough wits to make a respectable bluff can think of.

The future of the State Democracy
after its retirement from the State Convention at Syracuse yesterday is best represented in the minds of politicians
to-day by a large interrogation point.

The State people themselves don't know how to answer it. Some of them admitted this morning when the fever had died out of their excited bodies, that
their party made a mistake in not accepting the terms offered by Senator Hill's Committee on Credentials.

By accepting the tender of one-fifth
of the representation of the city in the convention, the followers of Grace, Fairchild and others would have gained a point they have been struggling for.

They would not have been compelled to pledge themselves to support the Tammany local ticket, and as they will probably support the State ticket in any event, their admission to the convention on any basis would have been in the nature of a triumph.

Legislative Candidates Uneasy.

The victory now rests with Tammany.

although it is a hollow one, and he
most anxious men in New York politics
to-day are the Tammany candidates for the Legislature.

One Tammany Senator who came
down from Syracuse on the same train
with a reporter for "The Evening World" expressed the apprehension of
a number of Tammany candidates when
he said:

"If there is anything in the handwriting on the wall, there's going to be the finest sort of a fight this campaign, and I am not sure that I want a re-nomination."

"The State people and the Independent County crowd headed by the Stead
can't do much injury to the county ticket, but they can knock the life out
of some of our legislative candidates."

"In several districts the Stead
balance of power or they can hold
it by combining with the State crowd
or the Republicans."

"I fear they will do so, and if they do, why it's all up with a lot of people who want to bear the Tammany medal
on their breasts in the Legislature."

Says a Mistake Was Made.

"The turning down of Fairchild and his crowd was a mistake. We should have given them all they asked and tied
their hands to prevent them from making mischief. Now they will go in with the Republicans to run a Kangaroo ticket against us, and the knockout of last year will be repeated."

The general impression among politicians who had subdued their choler sufficiently to express themselves this morning, was that the Platt machine
will be forced into the Mayor's mixed
ticket combine, and that the fight will be on the same lines as those of last year.

The feeling of Democrats concerning
the chances of the State ticket, is most sanguine, much more so than that of the Republicans.

Gen. Horatio King, who was yesterday nominated for Secretary of State;
Norton Chase, who will try to beat
Attorney-General Hancock; Senator
Jacob A. Cantor, Col. "Bill" Brown and
other Democrats who got in this morning from the Convention, predicted a sweeping victory for the State ticket.

No odds were offered on the chances of Tammany.

The local situation is so hopelessly mixed all around that almost any prediction is certain to be knocked into a cocked hat by the possible developments
of each succeeding twenty-four hours.

County Convention Delegates.

Delegates to the Republican County
Convention will be elected this evening
in each of the thirty-five Assembly districts of the city. In all 318 will be chosen, and the Platt leaders say they will have 200 out of this number.

The main contest will take place in the Twenty-fifth District, where Job
E. Hedges, the Mayor's private secretary, will endeavor to elect his delegate. The contest in the Twentieth District between Col. B. V. R. Cruger
and James L. Stewart, and the one in the Twenty-third District between Gen.
Kerwin and Julius M. Mayer, will undoubtedly prove decidedly lively.

It is claimed by the opponents of
"Boss" Platt that he will try to force a straight ticket, and that the Platt ticket will receive strength enough to elect the State ticket and permit him
to again control the Legislature.

Fairchild's Statement to-Morrow.

When ex-Secretary Fairchild reached

was late in arriving, and the meeting
had to wait half an hour in consequence.
Tax Commissioner Theodore Ruto was
another of those who had "that tired feeling," and he did not get down in
time to go on with a hearing of charges against Assessor Wendt.

EXCISE PLANK AN EVASION.

Ed Lauterbach Scores the Democratic Platform.

"Ours is an honest expression of
opinion; theirs a subterfuge, an evasion, contradicting itself in every second
line."

This is Mr. Edward Lauterbach's opinion of the relative merits of the two planks on the "wet" and "dry"
question embraced in the platform
adopted by the Republican and Democratic State Conventions respectively.

Mr. Lauterbach is Chairman of the County Committee—his Committee.
Also he may be expected to occupy the
seat now accredited, with its $5,000
salary, to David Bennett Hill in the United States Senate. He wants to,
anyway.

"You remember," he said, "when I walked down the aisle of the Saratoga Convention and commented upon the Miller amendment by saying 'No Republican can object to that.' Well, a Western newspaper said a day or two ago that 'No Democrat could, either.'
That's the situation. Neither Republican nor Democrat can object to it."

"The Republican party is for a decent
observance of the Sabbath in the interest of labor," that is a strong plank.
It is a winning one.

"The Democratic plank is an evasion.
It is cowardly. It will not fool anybody.
It says the Democratic party is in favor
of one thing and later on it says it isn't. Now, that's rank cowardice, isn't it? They're afraid of it. I mean the Democrats."

"What are you going to do about a local ticket?" Will you spring a combination?" he was asked.

"I don't know," was his reply. "But I believe the majority of Republicans are in favor of a straight ticket. Why couldn't they be? They are almost assured of winning; the situation could not be much more promising for the Republicans than it is."

"We do go into a combination Republican sentiment will dominate it,
and while we will not box all the office
we'll want something to say about the
men selected than we had last time."

"We will not take the chances this time we did then. This is our year.
We've got a clean bill of health in our pockets. But as to local, well, we'll see about that later on."

AND THE MAYOR CHUCKLED.

He Says There Can Be No Doubt of
a Union Ticket.

Mayor Strong enjoys the local political tangle quite as much as any man in this town. He chuckled an anti-grog chuckle when asked today what he thought of the situation.

"You can think almost anything you like without being wrong," he replied.
"Did you combine with Tammany to
force a union ticket?"

Another chuckle.

"Doesn't it look as if there would have to be a union ticket?"

"You bet you. I don't see how they are going to get away from it."

Says the "Rounds" Hounds Him.

Patrolman Joseph Reisman of the Elizabeth
street station, was before Commissioner Andrews
at Headquarters today charged by Boardman John McLaughlin with having been out of the precinct and in a building at 131 Howard street at 8 P. M. Sept. 13. Reisman declared that the roundsman had been bounding him ever since he (Reisman) had brought a charge against the roundsman last summer. Commissioner Andrews rebuffed the case in order that the patrolman might produce witnesses to corroborate his charge.

CLERGYMEN TESTIFY.

Stories of Munyon's Work.

Eminent Divines Give Positive Proof of the Prompt and Permanent Curative Effect of Munyon's Improved Incomparable Remedies.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Rev. A. T. Sager, Theological Seminary, says: "I have known of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure cured me
of a severe attack of rheumatism. The other half of the bottle I gave to my wife, J. P.
Theological Seminary, for his wife, who had suffered for years. He says it gave instant relief."
Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure
all forms of rheumatism and stomach troubles.
Price 25c.

Annual Sale of Umbrellas.

NOTE.—Once each year at this season we organize a great sale of Umbrellas.
For this year's sale preparations were made upon a most extraordinary scale.
Thousands upon thousands of dollars' worth of Umbrellas have been bought upon most advantageous terms and will be sold now at very much less than first cost of labor and materials.

24-in. School Umbrellas, 39c

English Gloria,
with fine hardwood handles, 39c.

English Gloria,
with selected hardwood handles, 49c.